2. Review of the inputs to the substantive preparatory process and the High-level International Intergovernmental Event on Financing for Development

In its decision 1/1 of 2 June 2000,[2] the Committee adopted, based on paragraph 3 of General Assembly resolution 54/196 of 22 December 1999, the text contained in the annex to that decision as a substantive preliminary agenda for the financing for development process, on the understanding that this preliminary agenda is of indicative nature and will evolve during the substantive process ahead of the final event, through, inter alia, inputs from Member States, regional intergovernmental consultations and all relevant stakeholders.

As one of the important inputs to the substantive preparatory process and the High-level Event, the Committee will have before it for review the report of the Secretary-General, divided into the following six chapters, which correspond to the six main headings of the above-mentioned agenda.

I. Mobilizing domestic financial resources

II. Mobilizing international resources for development: foreign direct investment and other private flows

III. Trade

IV. Increasing international financial cooperation for development through, inter alia, official development assistance

V. Debt

VI. Addressing systemic issues: enhancing the coherence and consistency of the international monetary, financial and trading systems in support of development

Headings I to VI have been scheduled for separate discussions in the proposed organization of work (see annex).

As further input to the substantive preparatory process and the High-level Event, the Committee will have before it the reports of the five regional consultations held by the regional commissions in 2000.
